2. The deceased pensioner, the Shahara Bano Begum was granted half of her husbands pension as a special case. The present claimant states that she is her daughter. When the mother herself was granted the reduced pension as a special case for her life time, I do not think there is any reason to consider the claim of the daughter as heard of the Mother.

Respected Sir,

I, the undersigned, Parsa Begum, daughter of late Miss. Shahara Banu Begum Saheba wife of Askar Hussain Saheb most obediently beg to approach your benign threshold with every confidence of favourable consideration at your gracious hands, of her prayer.

My mother late Miss. Shahara Banu Begum Saheba was a muthfurkhat pesioner as per G.O. No.7 P.A. dated 17/22nd August 1893 for which she had the possession of a military pension Ticket No.13/163 dated 28th December 1893. She was regularly drawing her pension till the 1st September 1926. During this month she deceased leaving behind her lady. As I, being poor and destitute, solely depended upon my mother, I inherited the above stated certificate as my only support and means of maintenance. Being a poor gosha lady, I was not able to apply earlier for the continuance of the pension in my favour.

In these above circumstances, I most humbly and obediently beg of you to be so gracious and kind enough to consider my legitimate claimsfor the pension of my late mother Miss. Shahara Banu Begum Saheba and be pleased to confer upon me the pension that was being drawn by my mother and thus save me from fasting and begging.

As to my identification, I have herewith attached a certificate for your Honour's perusal. If further testimonials are required, I shall submit them to your Honour satisfaction.

For this act of kindness and generosity, I shall ever ever be grateful to your Honour.

I beg to remain,

Respected Sir,
